The Year 6 were amazing and they did a great job of selling them. We are very proud to say that the Year 6 team raised £209 for Claire House. A massive well done to all of the Year 6 children for their efforts with their mock SATS assessments that they have completed. They have made so much progress and we're really proud of their commitment to their learning. In order to support the children over the Spring break, we will be sending home packs of revision for the children to do. This will be Maths, Reading and SPAG. We really appreciate your support with this - many children have asked for this so that they can practise the different elements whilst they're not in school. Tuesday - Tranmere 7 a side girl's football tournament. Tuesday - BFG movie night. Parents of the children detailed below are invited to join us in our celebration assembly on Friday 4th April.
